

ACCIDENT REPORT INFO SHEET

The following is the information to complete a Washington State Accident Report Form.

- ❖ You are the driver of your family car when you are involved in an accident. Use “actual” information about you— name, address, driver’s license number, etc. Your car, insurance, license plate number, etc. can be fictitious. The rest of the information to be used is included below in this scenario.
- ❖ There is about $3800 damage to your car and about $1700 damage to the other car involved.
- ❖ You were traveling west on 1st Avenue, a two-way, two-lane arterial, and starting to make a left turn onto “A” Street, a two-lane, two-way non-arterial. There was no traffic light at the intersection. You were struck partially head-on by an on-coming car. The whole front end of your car was damaged. The left front bumper and fender on the on-coming car were damaged.
- ❖ The accident occurred on Thursday, September 7, 2006, at 9:10 AM in Wenatchee located in Chelan County.
- ❖ There were no passengers in your car. The one passenger in the other car, Janis Smith, suffered a broken index finger. You were not able to obtain the doctor’s name to whom she went. Her address was the same as the driver’s address.
- ❖ The driver of the other car was Jonathan A. Smith whose address was 3110 132nd Street SE, Seattle, WA 98122. He said he was an insurance salesman. His Washington driver’s license number was SMITHJA402NA. His birthday was August 1, 1960. His insurance company was Mandatory Insurance Company. His policy number was 12345AB67C.
- ❖ The city police were called and arrived in a short period of time.
- ❖ The sun was shining and the streets were dry. There was no street maintenance or construction in the area. You were distracted by a closely following car and another car partially across the center on “A” Street into which you were turning.
- ❖ The lady in the car on “A” Street, about 30 years old, left her name and address as a witness. Her name was Betty White, and she lived at W 2120 9th Avenue, Wenatchee.
- ❖ Jonathan Smith was the registered owner of the 4-door, 2002 Ford Explorer, he was driving. The license number was KBG 248, and the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN#) was 26G281BC67652AG15. The mileage on his odometer was 26,242.

Accident Narrative

Unit 1 going west on 1st Ave making a left turn on "A" street, was distracted by another vehicle following too close, causing Unit 1 to hit Unit 2 in the front left corner.

Reason for not seeing danger: Distracted.

